EN BEE

1953

PUBLISHED BY THE YEARBOOK STAFF
NORTH BALTIMORE, OHIO

DEDICATION

We, the Annual Staff of North Baltimore High School, dedicate this, the fifteenth edition of the EN BEE to our senior classmate, Jack Herringhaw, who would have graduated with us in 1953. His cheery smile and quiet, but sunny disposition brought him many friends.

"They never quite leave us, our friends who have passed
Through the shadows of death to the sunlight above;
A thousand sweet memories are holding them fast
To the places they blessed with presence and love."

CLASS WILL

- I, Lewis Bishop, will my nights of chasing a cat in a muddy field with my good clothes on to Jack Wood. This may not be an ability, but I couldn't think of anything else to will.
- I, Pat Boney, will my scholastic ability to Bunk Gerdeman. One period of study a week is enough.
- I, Harold Bonner, will my quietness to Jeanette Creeger. You already have a good start. Keep up the good work!
- I, James Carter, will my reputation at Milan, Michigan to George Myers. You'll have to find out what it is.
- I, Charles Clark, will my singing ability to Ted Slaughterbeck. Keep up the good work, and you may be a second Dean Martin.
- I, Rosemary Clouser, will my ability to giggle to Jeanette Creeger. I hope it doesn't get you in as much trouble as it did me.
- I, Denny Dennis, will my ability to get into trouble to David Sponsler. Try a little harder, Dave.
- I, Darlene Engle, will my ability to co-operate with Mrs. Sweebe to Carl Solarik. Just smile and slip her a five dollar bill, and things will be fine.
- I, Helen Ferguson, will my ability to blush to anyone who wants it. Some people say it's an asset, But I think it is a liability.
- I, Bob Fittro, will my seat in stenography class to Bill Wilkinson. If you are the only boy in the class as I was, you'll learn a lot about women.
- I, Howard Flowers, will my squarehead haircut to Bob Bowersox. It took me a long time to find another squarehead like me to will it to Bob.
- I, Arlene Freed, will my ability to cut classes to Sue DeArment and Barbara Deter. You have a good start, girls.
- I, Ted Gardner, will my yen for women to Orly Heilman. Really Orly, this isn't something that should have to be willed.
- I, Ann Garrison, will my ability to stick to one man to Nancy Jeffrey. You know Nancy, sometimes it's worth it.
- I, Wilma Gordon, will my eyes to any girl who would like to use them for an evening. They come in very handy.
- I, Sue Grobly, will my dancing ability to Mary Lou Deter. It just takes a little practice.
- I, Mary Ann Haskins, will my forgetfulness to my sister, Shirley. You can always say you forgot to come to school.
- I, Bill Holloway, will my ability to sleep in class to David Ferguson. The taking of sleeping pills during class seems to help.
- I, Bob Jimison, will my ability to gripe at everything in Mrs. Sweebe's class to Bunk Gerdeman. Bunk, I believe you have all the qualifications.
- I, Nancy Lambright, will my friendliness to everyone in high school. You'll get along much better.
- I, Shirley Lindeman, will my temper to my sister Kay, providing she can control it better than I did.

- I, Tom McGann, will my locker (number 168) to David Mumy and whoever he may choose to locker with.
- I, Sandra Sewell, will my ability to "brownie" around the teachers to LeRoy McMahan. Use this ability as soon as possible LeRoy, because it only works for about one year.
- I, Patricia Sheffer, will my ability to sneak into the house after 12: A. M. to my sister, Jack. Kind words to the dog sometimes helps.
- I, Barbara Simon, will my place on the annual staff to Ann Sesok. Don't let them make you work too hard, Ann.
- We, Shirely Smith and Shirley Mercer, will our friendship of high school days to Elaine Adams and Ruth Ziegler. We hope you have as many good times together as we have had.
- I, Jim Sterling, will my physique to Jim Gordon. Keep trying.
- I, Dale Swope, will the first chair in the cornet section to Lonnie Thompson. Just blow loud, Lonnie; it doesn't make any difference what notes you hit.
- I, Connie Woodruff, will my naturally curly hair to Louise Brown. Keep trying, you'll make it.
- I, Ed Richmond, will my 1941 Nash to Bill Carlton. It's more fun to take a girl out in a car, than on a motor bike.
- I, Danny McMahan, will my basketball uniform to Everett Ackerman on the condition that you shrink eight inches.
- I, Jack Miklovic, will my ability to go with an older woman to my brother, Ned. This fascination I hold for herruns in the family no doubt.
- I, Delores Morelan, will my ability to stunt my growth to Ted Slaughterbeck. It's pretty comfortable down here, Ted.
- I, Mary Jo Monasmith, will my dark complexion to Leah Lovell. You might try a sun-lamp in the winter.
- I, Gerald Perry, will my ability to get in trouble with Mr. Whittington in his seventh period study hall to John Bucher. See if you can talk him out of staying after school. I Couldn't.
- I, Lawrence Nungester, will my ability of walking the same alley for thirteen years to Larry Woodruff.
- I, Ina Moore, will my love for school to Jeff Boudne. You have to come once in a while, Jeff.
- I, Fern Walter, will my ability to get along with all the teachers, and still be happy, to Cherie Bushey. All it takes is co-operation.
- I, Ed Wirt, will my back table at Palmer's, and my trips to the Haskins' residence to Jim Baney. You already have a good start.
- I, Charles Zeltner, will my bashfulness to Jack Monasmith. It helps sometimes Jack, although I can't think when.
- I, Howard Wymer, will my salesmanship ability to David Luse.

"Duke" & "Pat"

May 22, 1963

Dear Ina,

I have just returned from my trip around the world. As you know, I have been studying the problem of woman suffrage in Africa. I intend to tell of my experiences on my next television program.

After landing in the United States, I dined at the Stork Club where I found Dale Swope. He is the chief chef there, and our old friend Danny McMahan is the chief bouncer. I got so homesick for my old classmates that I stopped off for a couple of days at North Baltimore.

My, North Baltimore has really changed. It now has a population of over ten thousand. Howard Flowers and Helen Ferguson have a new home in the south end of town. "Duke" is working at the Water Works, trying to improve the taste of the water. Helen is a cashier at the First National Bank. Mary Jo and Bernard are next door neighbors.

As I was visiting Connie, who is also married, Wilma Gordon stopped by. She is taking a survey on the number of cavities of each person in town.

I also met Pat Boney on the street, he is now the manager of his own baseball team. His slogan is "Always have Boys."

The new school house is very nice. Some of our classmates just couldn't stay away. Darlene Engle is teaching the third grade, while Patricia Sheffer is teaching Girls' Physical Education. The new Manual Arts teacher is none other than Gerald Perry. I stopped by the office for a chat with Mr. VanAtta, when Jack Miklovic walked in. He's the new truant officer. My, how times have changed. Jack told me that Bob Fittro was the architect for the new school.

Bob Jimlson picked me up in his new Cadillac. As you know he is the owner of a newspaper in Hammansburg. He said that Jim Sterling, Jim Carter, Charlie Zeltner, and Lewis Bishop all own farms and are doing very well. Rose Clouser and Bill Meyers who live on a farm, have a little boy. They couldn't decide what to call him, so they compromised and called him Billy Rose.

I stopped in for a snack at the S & S Restaurant owned by Shirley Smith and Shirley Mercer. They serve delicious hamburgers. I was told that they buy all their meat from Ed Wirt who is a large wholesaler in Toledo. He recently married Mary Ann Haskins.

I had a little free time, so I then went to Sandra Sewell's "Body Building Institution for Women." She has a very large business.

Nancy Lambright and Ed Richnond gave a big party last night for Ann Garrison, and her Marine husband, Jack Gregory, who is home on leave.

I was very surprised to see Howard Wymer there. He's been so busy giving his soap box speeches on the new Republicrat Party which he founded on the principles that "There's two sides to every question."

Sonny Clark was the feature attraction at the party. He sang a number from the "Barber of Seville." The girls were so affected that some of them passed out.

Delores Morelan and Arlene Freed came to the rescue after they recovered. You know they're both nurses in Toledo.

Bill Holloway was the only person who came stag. The girls say he is the most eligible bachelor in town, but he is still fighting marriage.

Lawrence Nurmester is in the Army, but happened to be home on leave. Tom McGann is so fed up with women that he joined the Foreign Legion. We did persuade him to come to the party though.

Sue Grobly telephoned the group from New York City. She was unable to attend the party because of her television show. Arthur Godfrey is now working for her. Her sponsor is Harold Bonner. She advertises his Bite Size Cigarettes.

On my way back to Hollywood, I intend to visit Shirley Lindenman and Barbara Simon, who are working at the Ohio Oil in Findlay. After ten years they are the head of the messenger girls.

Denny isn't speaking to Shirley and Barbara since he owns the new Gulf Station.

Well, so long for now. Don't work too hard. You shouldn't have to, with twelve children to help you.

Love,

Fern

P.S. I couldn't find Ted Gardner. I guess he retired shortly after graduation.

McGANN: Waitress, why does that dog sit there and watch me like that?

SANDRA: I guess sir, it's because you've got the plate he usually eats from.

- O -

FLOWERS (reading from manuscript): "He knelt and raised the hem of his sweetheart's skirt to his lips."

McMAHAN: Stop! That should read, "He knelt and raised his lips to the hem of his sweetheart's skirt."

- O -

BONEY: I sent my girl (Wilma) a valentine inscribed "From Your Only Love."

HOLLOWAY: Did she get excited over it?
BONEY: She sure did. She called up a dozen different fellows to find out who sent it.

- O -

SUE: Howja spell sense?

MRS. SWEEBE: Do you mean horse sense or dollars and cents?

SUE: No, I mean like in "I ain't seen him sence-----."

MARY ANN: Well, and how's business?

WIRT: Oh, awful; not a day goes by I don't have to beg overtime.

- O -

FITTRO: How do you like my new lighter?

PAT SHEFFER: Fine. How many cigarettes do you get out of a gallon?

- O -

STERLING: "Dennis has a new stunt. When he's swimming with a girl, he tickles the sole of her foot."

MIKLOVIC: "What does he do that for?"

STERLING: "He says he always gets a kick out of it."

- O -

FREED: "So you're engaged, Rose?"

ROSEMARY: "Yes, and you should have seen Bill Propose."

ARLENE: "I have seen him."
